

XVII International Film Festival

Monday APRIL 13, 2020, pm - Dancer, 30 min.

Muros (Global, 2015), Directed by Gregorio Kocha

When the Berlin Wall came down, it divided people

Reality is exactly the opposite. There have never been so many walls. This through the eyes of people living on both sides of different walls.

Tuesday APRIL 4, (insert time) - 90sec, 2020

Manzana (Spain, 2019) - Directed by Emilia de la Fuente

Presented by Prof. Manuela Ronciglio, Latin American Languages

Desperate and poor, Sonica has finally found a way to earn money, saving and being rewarded after selling a large amount of milk and cows standing on the trees, leave them to the river and get a very passage to Africa.

Wednesday APRIL 17, (insert time) - 90sec, 115 min.

Roma (Mexico, 2018), Directed by Alfonso Cuarón

Presented by Dr. Virgilia Ochoa Villegas, Latin American, Caribbean and Latin Studies

The film portrays the life of a maid in the 1970s. Mexican women experience life after migration in urban areas.